

THE STANDARD

Official Paper of Jackson County.

THURSDAY, - - JAN. 11, 1877.

THIS PAPER IS ON FILE WITH

Where Advertising Contracts can be made.

The heavy wagon taking coal from the Slope to Fulton Furnace, as they slowly move along Main Street, make a peculiar kind of music, these freeing days.

There has been excellent sleighing here for nearly two weeks past. The roads are smooth, and all kinds and sorts of sleds are brought into use. There has been no such time for sleighing since the winter of 1856-7.

Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup is fast taking the place of all the old-fashioned cough remedies. It never fails to relieve the most violent cold, or throat diseases it is invaluable. Price, 25 cents.

There will be a meeting at the Court House on Saturday, Jan. 27, 1877, at one o'clock, to form a Literary Association. Each Church and each Sabbath School in the county will send one or more delegates.

Further particulars next week.

It is said that the children at the public schools suffer with cold feet. It was not so when the school houses had great log fires, where the children could warm their feet. Teachers should pay particular attention to the little ones, and see that they, by turns, go to the stove and warm their feet.

Tuesday morning was the coldest that we remember for many years. At seven o'clock, the thermometer hanging at the northeast end of our office, on the outside of the wall, indicated 15 degrees below zero. We think if it had not rested against the brick wall, it would have been several degrees lower.

A special train was run from Portsmouth to Columbus on Monday, to accommodate the mob of bull-dozing Democrats who wanted to go to Columbus to elect Tilden by one general blow. The train was advertised to leave Portsmouth at five o'clock, and reach Columbus between ten and eleven, but it was nearly ten minutes late. There were six cars, but not over fifty passengers when it passed this place. Nineteen tickets were sold at this place, and four of them were sold to Republicans, who had business at Columbus, and took advantage of the half fare.

A lady friend sends us the following, which we take the liberty of publishing, omitting names. Such kind words of appreciation, (as well as the $1.50) are highly prized by us.

To the Editor of the Standard: Please continue your valuable paper to my brother. I wish to make him a New Year's gift and could think of nothing more suitable. I have enjoyed it myself especially the careful selections of poetry, and the position taken on temperance, and other topics of vital importance to national welfare. I enclose $1.50, hoping you will long retain your present position. Yours, respectfully,

Where there is so much rivalry as in the manufacture of family medicines, he who would succeed must give positive and convincing proof of merit. This is an age of inquiry. People take nothing for granted. They must know the "whys" and "wherefores" before acknowledging the superiority of one article over another. Among the few preparations that have stood the test, those manufactured by R. V. Pierce, M. D., of the World's Dispensary, Buffalo, N. Y., have for many years been foremost. The truth of any statement made concerning them can be easily ascertained, for Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy and Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery are now prescribed by many physicians in curing obstinate cases of Catarrh and incipient Consumption. The Discovery has no equal in curing Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis and Nervous Affections. It allays all irritation of the mucous membrane, aids digestion, and when used with Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pills readily overcomes torpid liver and constipation, while the Favorite Prescription has no rival in the field of prepared medicine in curing diseases peculiar to females. If you wish to "know yourself" procure a copy of "The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser," an illustrated book of nearly 1000 pages, adapted to the wants of everybody. Price $1.50, postage prepaid. Address the author, R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Having used Dr. Marshall's Lung Syrup in my practice for some time, I am prepared to say that it is a superior remedy for all cases of Coughs, Colds and diseases of the Lungs and Chest. Dr. F. W. F. Hale, Springfield, Michigan.

As the Democratic list, such as the New York Sun, persist in charging President Grant with drunkenness, and other debauchery, we publish the following extract from a letter in the New York Independent, written by Mary Clemmer.

It seems yesterday since the lofty brow of Charles Sumner, above the ranks of average men, since Charles Sumner's imperious step strode through the crowd, on his way from the Capitol. I doubt if I should, or Stanton, or Lincoln were ever seen walking on these pavements. These were troubled days. Their hours of recreation were few indeed. When they passed alone, dandified in Avenue, it was in their carriages, hastening to the Capital. Andrew Johnson was a frequent walker here. The last time I saw him, not two years ago, was on Pennsylvania Avenue. With his immense coat back the extreme nicety of his dress. This was remarkable. There was nothing flamboyant or dandified in it; but such a gloss of broadcloth, such perfection of fit, such faultlessly gloved hands were not easily overlooked, if only from contrast to the ordinary rags of the carelessly dressed men. The look of Andrew Johnson's clothes indicated that extreme respect which he cherished for himself. He had his delectations from his best estate, as I suppose most men have; but he had high, fine, true qualities, which never wholly forsook him, and which in the few moments of his life, they all seemed to speak out in the perfection of his attire. Another exceedingly well dressed man who walks Pennsylvania Avenue is President Grant. I met him just above the Treasury, with his son "Buck," as tall as his father, the best looking of the young Grants, and made the mental connection of the President looks like a gentleman. He did not always look quite a gentleman. In the early days of his administration he did not always look quite a gentleman. He did not always look quite a gentleman. He did not always look quite a gentleman.
